

First Responder Refresher

To remain current, the First Responder take the State-approved refresher training every two years for re-certification and maintain Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) certification every two years.

What You Will Learn

- Victim assessment
- Airway management and CPR
- Emergency childbirth
- Shock and bleeding control
- Stabilization of spinal injuries
- Psychological emergencies
- Medical emergencies– shock, burns, poisons
- Special wound care
- Splinting fractures
- Crisis intervention
- Hazardous materials

Who Should Attend

All employees who need to interact with medical emergencies