

Heartsaver AED

This four-hour training teaches the basic techniques of adult CPR and the use of an automated external defibrillator (AED). It is offered to laypersons interested in CPR involving a multitude of situations. The course is based upon American Heart Association and National Safety Council standards.

What You Will Learn

- Barrier devices in CPR
- Giving first aid for choking
- Appropriate for safety requirements for companies
-

Who Should Attend

All laypersons