

North, South grads earn scholarships

Waukesha County Technical College has announced Waukesha South 2009 graduate Binh Long Tran as the grand prize winner of its Win an Education essay contest. Binh will receive a WCTC scholarship valued at up to $7,000.

Over 200 participants wrote short essays that explained their career goals, how WCTC would help them reach those goals and how WCTC would change their life.

Binh plans to enroll in WCTC's Computer Hardware Technician program.

Jordan Witzel, a Waukesha North 2009 graduate, received a $1,000 scholarship as runner up winner in the contest and plans to attend WCTC to become a firefighter.

The Win an Education scholarship contest was sponsored by the WCTC Foundation and WCTC Student Government Association.

Some seniors eligible for fresh food vouchers

Community Action Coalition for South Central Wisconsin, Inc. (CAC) is administering the Seniors Farmer's Market Voucher Nutrition Program for Waukesha

County.

Seniors 60 years of age or older (Native Americans 55 years of or older) with a monthly income below 185 percent of the federal poverty guideline are eligible.

Disbursements dates

1 to 2:30 p.m. Wednesday, July 8, Sussex Food Pantry.

2 to 4 p.m. Wednesday, July 22, Associated Bank, Dousman.

Vouchers will provide seniors with $25 worth of fresh fruits, vegetables or herbs and will be disbursed on a first come - first serve basis. Limit of one pack per household.

For more information, call CAC, (920) 262-9667 or the Waukesha County ADRC, (262) 548-7848.