

Food Service Production

30-credit Technical Diploma

www.wctc.edu/food-service

Food service employees are accustomed to working at a fast pace. They must be strong team players, as they work with other kitchen and hospitality staff, and flexibility is key as their hours and schedules vary. If you're personable, strive for accuracy and are good at multi-tasking, a career in food service may be right for you.

About This Program

It takes a well-trained kitchen staff to create a memorable dining experience for restaurant patrons, and those in food service production are an integral part of that team. In this program, develop proper cooking methods and learn techniques for hot and cold food preparation, baking and garde manger.

Career Salaries

$21,000 – $38,800 annually

Salary range estimates based on wages for related occupations in Waukesha County as reported by Economic Modeling Specialists International (EMSI). Individual wages may vary based on experience, industry, location and specific job requirements.
