

Individualized Technical Studies

60-credit Associate of Applied Science Degree

www.wctc.edu/its

If you have specific career objectives that are not met by any one WCTC degree, this flexible program is for you.

About This Program

With help from college representatives and an industry mentor, design a unique associate degree that combines courses from two or more areas of study.

What Makes This Program Unique

- Choose an occupational mentor who works with WCTC staff to design an industry-specific program that considers your educational goals and work experience.
- Technical coursework must include courses from at least two separate areas of study.
- General studies courses include social science, behavioral science, math or science, and communication.

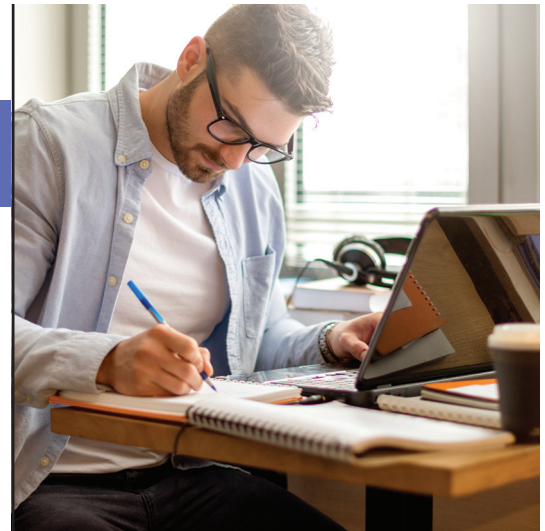

Career Salaries

Annual salaries vary.

Program Examples

This program is completely customizable. Some examples include:

- Criminal Justice Management: Courses from Criminal Justice and Business Management.
- Childcare Administration: Courses from Early Childhood Education and Business Management.
